STIPULATION AND [PROPOSED]
ORDER FOR MODIFICATION OF THE CASE MANAGEMENT ORDER RE:
NUMBER OF TRIAL DAYS
[FRCP 16(b)(4)]

22 The parties hereto, by and through their respective counsel, recite and stipulate as 23 follows:

24 WHEREAS, on March 25, 2013, this Court issued its Case Management Order in this
25 matter, which provides that a jury trial shall commence March 24, 2014, and last 5 days,

26 WHEREAS, subsequent to the issuance of the Case Management Order the parties have 27 made their initial disclosures, have conducted written discovery, participated in a mediation on 28 June 4, 2013, and have met and conferred to reevaluate their trial estimates in light of further information obtained since the Case Management Order was issued,

STIPULATION AND ORDER FOR MODIFICATION
OF THE CASE MANAGEMENT ORDER RE:
NUMBER OF TRIAL DAYS

WHEREAS, counsel have determined that the issues which will be tried in this matter will require 8 days of trial,

WHEREAS, counsel believe that because of the foregoing good cause exists to modify the Case Management Order to provide that the jury trial in this matter will last 8 days,

THE PARTIES HEREBY STIPULATE THAT the Case Management Order issued by the court be modified, and provide that the jury trial in this matter shall last 8 days.

ORDER

The Court having reviewed and considered the recitals and stipulation of the parties, the Court finds that good cause exists to modify the Case Management Order to provide that the jury trial in this matter will last 8 days, and now, therefore,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Case Management Order herein is modified to provide that the jury trial in this matter will last 8 days.

Counsel have made no good showing of the reason for the enlargement of days for trial. The Court will decide trial days after counsel
